KEY PHRASES

Hello and how are you?

With the thu and sibh forms

GAELIC	ENGLISH
Halò	Hello
Fàilte!	Welcome!
Madainn mhath.	Good morning.
Feasgar math.	Good evening.

GAELIC	ENGLISH	FORM
Ciamar a tha thu?	How are you?	thu
Ciamar a tha sibh?	How are you?	sibh
Tha mi gu math.	I'm well.	–
Tha mi gu math, tapadh leat.	I'm well, thank you.	thu
Tha mi gu math, tapadh leibh.	I'm well, thank you.	sibh

thu = you (informal, singular) · sibh = you (formal, polite, plural), as LearnGaelic's Little by Little Unit 1 explains. A dash means the phrase is the same either way.

Useless says: Fàilte! That means welcome. I've rubbed out nothing today, which is a record.

HOW THE GAELIC WAS CHECKED

Every Scottish Gaelic word and phrase in this pack was copied from the sources below, which we checked on 30 October 2026: mostly LearnGaelic's lessons and its Twenty Words lists, plus the place-name lists of Ainmean-Àite na h-Alba. Spellings and accents follow those sources. Where Gaelic has a thu form and a sibh form, we say which is which, following LearnGaelic's lessons. Words we could not find in these sources were left out.

HOW TO HEAR THE WORDS

We don't make up English-letter spellings of Gaelic sounds. To hear real recordings, use LearnGaelic's free resources: each Twenty Words list (learngaelic.scot/fichead-facal) has a sound clip for every word, the Little by Little lessons have recordings of the phrases, and the LearnGaelic Dictionary has sound clips for many entries.
